USC THORNTON STUDENT HAILEY WILD RELEASING NEW SINGLE “MY FAVORITE PART” FEBRUARY 21, 2022

After taking a break from releasing music to focus on developing her sound, singer-songwriter and USC sophomore Hailey Wild is excited to announce her newest single, “My Favorite Part”. This pop-adjacent ballad features sweeping synths, a punchy drum machine, and echoing harmonies, all of which beautifully compliment Hailey’s powerful lead vocals. Complete with a music video, “My Favorite Part” is set for release on February 21, 2022. The music video will be released March 4th, 2022.

Hailey Wild is a 21-year-old singer-songwriter whose sound is as unique and eclectic as she is. Her passion began at a young age, writing her first songs when she was 10 years old - at 17, she made her Spotify debut with her single, “Long Time”. She’s now a trained vocalist, multi-instrumentalist, and experienced performer, with over 100 shows under her belt. Inspired by artists like Lana Del Rey, The Weeknd, and Amy Winehouse, Hailey’s blend of indie, soul, and R&B builds on her influences to create something that’s uniquely her own.

If you’re a college student looking for honest, relatable music, Hailey Wild is the artist for you. Pre-save “My Favorite Part” at HaileyWild, and while you wait, check out her Spotify here.
