About

Hailey Wild is a 21-year-old singer-songwriter whose sound is as unique and eclectic as she is. Her passion began at a young age, writing her first songs when she was 10 years old - at 17, she made her Spotify debut with her single, "Long Time". She's now a trained vocalist, multi-instrumentalist, and experienced performer, having played over 100 shows. Inspired by artists like Lady Gaga, The Weeknd, and Amy Winehouse, Hailey's blend of indie, soul, and R&B builds on her influences to create something that's uniquely her own. If you're a college student looking for honest, relatable music, Hailey Wild is the artist for you.
